

The Sea Chart
John Blake
with foreword by HRH The Duke of York

Order Form

The book examines how the world took shape two dimensionally through the development of the sea chart and its visual representation of European exploration, trade, conquest and colonisation. Chapters are organised geographically and chronologically with a succinct history and amplified by a sumptuous selection of charts and coastal views representing each theatre of the world to support the text.

To order direct from the author, please return this form to

Lt Cdr John Blake FRIN RN
Lansdowne House
Long Street
Devizes
Wiltshire SN10 1NJ

Telephone 01380 728728

Facsimile 01380 728777

e-mail: johnblake@clic.demon.co.uk

Please send copy(ies) of The Sea Chart. I enclose payment £34.50 (£4.50 P&P inc) to Gryphon Enterprises
A contribution for each book sold is donated to ARNO.

Name

Address Town/City

County Post Code

Telephone number and/or e-mail (for any queries) Signed